APPENDIX D.

Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund.

Order :—

* * * * * *

4. Though owing to differences in the family, the various members have been unable to agree in the selection of proper objects of useful public charity and have accordingly left such selection to His Highness the Maharaja, yet, having regard to the wishes already expressed by them from time to time, and bearing in mind the fact that the family really consists of two branches, His Highness is of opinion that it will be best in the interest of the public and most agreeable to the wishes of both branches of the family that there should be two charities, one in the name of Nanja Raja Bahadur for the construction and maintenance of a Chattram, and the other in the name of Devaraja Bahadur, father of Sivaram Raja Bahadur, for the advancement of Education.

5. His Highness the Maharaja regards it as undesirable that the administration of these charities should be thrown upon the State Muzrai Department and he believes that they will be more efficiently and economically administered by Committees of private gentlemen.

6. With the view, therefore, of carrying out the construction and providing for the maintenance of a Chattram at Mysore intended for all classes and to be called "Nanjaraj Chattram," His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to entrust the sum of Rs. 63,547-7-0 to a Committee composed of the following gentlemen:—

1. Mr. Alagendra Krishna Urs.
2. Rai Bahadur P. Krishna Rao.
3. Do A. R. Sabhapathi Mudaliar.
4. Sowcar Veerasangappa.
5. Sowcar Bommia.
6. Mr. G. H. Bayly.

7. His Highness is pleased to entrust the remaining sum of Rs. 50,000 to a Committee composed of the following gentlemen :—

1. Mr. T. R. A. Thumboo Chettiar.
2. „ E. Chidambaram Iyer.
3. „ A. Narasimha Iyengar.
4. „ A. R. Narayen Sastri.
5. „ Mallari Rao (School master).
6. „ B. Mallappa (School master).
7. „ S. Rangacharlu (Pleader).
8. „ H. Nanjunda Raja Urs (Attaché).

This Committee will invest safely the whole of the funds entrusted to them in Government Promissory Note or in suitable landed property and out of the proceeds of such investment, found endowments in the names of Devaraja Bahadur for the improvement of Sanskrit and Vernacular literature and for the advancement of education in directions in which adequate provisions do not already exist. They should make the investment and endowments as above directed after obtaining His Highness' previous sanction to their proposals in that behalf.

8. His Highness reserves to himself the power of removing any of the trustees appointed under paras 6 and 7 above, as well as the power to appoint additional trustees and to fill up any vacancy caused by the death, retirement or removal of any trustee or otherwise.

READ THE FOLLOWING PAPERS—

1. The following letter from the Joint Honorary Secretary "Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund," dated 13th March 1895, addressed to the Dewan:—

"I herewith submit the Memorandum drawn up by the Joint Secretaries regarding the administration of the Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund, together with the remarks of the President and other trustees. The Memorandum briefly explains the various objects which were carried out with the help of this fund from June 1883 to March 1895, and also contains our proposal for the future administration of the fund."

"In accordance with the view expressed by Government in its Order No. D. H. O. 8, dated Camp Mysore, 5th June 1892, which has been fully quoted in the Memorandum at page 15,* the Joint Secretaries carefully thought over the matter and proposed to the trustees that the whole income of the fund may in future be devoted to the education of high caste widows. I am happy to note that the other trustees also have approved of this object and think that about two-thirds or even three-fourths of the income of the fund may be devoted to it, and that the remainder may be set apart for encouraging the translation of useful English and Sanskrit works into Kanarese and for continuing the services of the present music teacher and employing an additional teacher, if possible, to give lesson to home students on the Vina. But individually I fully concur with Government in thinking that it is desirable to devote the whole fund to a single laudable object. By specially encouraging the education of high caste widows, we shall be supplementing the efforts of Government in spreading and popularising female education in Mysore, and at the same time save the most unfortunate section of the Hindu community from life-long misery and wretchedness, by elevating their minds and making them useful members of society. Many of the other advantages of the proposal have been pointed out in the Memorandum.

*"The arrangements proposed by the trustees are sanctioned as a tentative measure subject to revision at the end of three years. An obvious objection to the distribution proposed is that it consists of too many small items. A large object to which the fund could be beneficially devoted would be more suitable. The trustees are requested to take this point into their consideration in due course."

"I beg that the Government may be pleased to take the matter into their kind consideration and sanction the proposal to devote the whole fund in future to the education of high caste widows. After the proposal is sanctioned we shall submit for the approval of Government detailed rules for successfully carrying out the object.

"Our accounts, a statement of which to the end of March 1895 is herewith submitted, show a balance of Rs. 3,787-12-10 on hand, which has been safely invested in the Government Savings Bank at Mysore. As it is not advisable to stop suddenly in the middle of the year the grant-in-aids and scholarships we are now giving, it will be necessary to continue them till the end of the year, and about Rs. 1,287-12-10 will be necessary for the purpose. The remaining Rs. 2,500-0-0 may be set apart for the work of translation and for continuing the services of the itinerent music teacher to give lessons to home students on the Vina."

II. Education Secretary's Memo, dated 20th March 1895, submitting the opinions of the members of the Maharani's Girls' School Committee on the proposals of Rai Bahadur A. Narasimmiengar, Joint Honorary Secretary, Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund, and suggesting that admission to the widows' classes may be restricted to pupils of industrious habits and good moral character.

C. No. 186, DATED 30TH MARCH 1895.

ORDER THEREON.—The trustees of the "Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund" propose, in the papers read above, to utilise a large portion of the annual income of the fund to educate high caste widows in view to their being eventually employed as teachers in girls' schools.

2. When the fund was placed in the hands of the trustees, they were informed, by Government Order dated 26th June 1883, that the object of the endowment was "the improvement of Sanskrit and Vernacular literature" and the "advancement of education in directions in which adequate provisions do not exist." The Government are of opinion that the trustees are bound to carry out the trust, as far as possible, according to the expressed intentions of the endower.

3. To offer special inducement and facilities to grown-up Hindu widows to educate themselves for employment as teachers in girls' schools will doubtless be promoting one of the objects of the endowment, but the entire income cannot be exclusively and permanently devoted to the attainment of this single object. The Government are, therefore, pleased to sanction the appropriation, for a period of six years and subject to consideration thereafter, of three-fourths of the income of
